

7th Midterm Conference of the ESA RN Sociology of Emotions

25-27 August 2016

Conference venue: Stockholm University, Geovetenskapens hus, Svante Arrhenius väg 8

Thursday, 25 August

9.30-9.50 registration, Geovetenskapens hus, 2nd floor

9.50-10.00 welcome, room: U29

10.00-12.00, room: U29

THEORIZING AFFECT AND EMOTION

chair: Åsa Wettergren, University of Gothenburg

An integrative approach: Emotions as material-semiotic agencies

Jessika Graham, University of Gothenburg

Nostalgia: A topic for collaboration between cultural sociology and sociology of emotions

Katharina Scherke, Karl-Franzens-University of Graz

Affect as Emotional Energy? The Issue with Durkheimian A Priori

Basil Wiese, KU Eichstätt-Ingolstadt

A Sociological Account of Affect

Christian von Scheve, Freie Universität Berlin

12.00-13.00 lunch break (self-catering, see conference folder for open restaurants/cafes)

13.00-15.00 two parallel sessions

1. room: U28

EMOTION AND DISCOURSE

chair: Elgen Sauerborn, Freie Universität Berlin

How to do Emotions in Discourse?

Monika Verbalyte, Freie Universität Berlin

Emotional Ambivalence, Discourse(s) and Agency - Gaps between Discourse and Practice

Eva-Maria Bub, Goethe-University Frankfurt am Main

Internal Dialogues as starting point for analyzing emotions sociologically

Yvonne Albrecht, University of Kassel

Ashamed of one's sexism: Emotion discourse in contemporary Swedish 'Books about men'

Kalle Berggren, Stockholm University

and

2. room: U26

EMOTIONS, NORMS AND MORALITY

chair: Katharina Scherke, University of Graz

Emotions (and morality) in an economic transaction

Sylvia Terpe, Max-Planck-Institute for Social Anthropology

Taxes, sex work and morality: exploring an incendiary combination

Isabel Crowhurst, University of Essex

Between Care and Cuts. A vignette study on the emotional labour of austerity in social work

Ellen M. Grootegoed, Utrecht University

Mark Smith, University of Edinburgh

15.00-15.30 coffee break

15.30-17.00 two parallel sessions

1. room: U26

EMOTIONS AS SOCIAL PRACTICES

chair: Sylvia Terpe, Max-Planck-Institute for Social Anthropology

Transferring Emotions – A Social Practice?

Dominik Döllinger, Uppsala University

Lillian Döllinger, Stockholm University

Envy as social practice depicted on the paintings

Bogna Dowgiałło, University of Gdansk

Skirmish for pavement. Anger and aggression in the urban traffic of Warsaw

Maja Sawicka, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

and

2. room: U28

MEDIATED EMOTIONS

chair: Jochen Kleres, University of Gothenburg

Narratives of internet dating and the emotionology of risk: Nutters, naughtiness and no spark

Mary Holmes, University of Edinburgh

Chris Beasley, University of Adelaide

Intimate Media Spaces: Emotions on Tinder and Beyond

Jenny Jansdotter, Karlstad University

Emotions and Ties in Mediated Activism

Philip K. Creswell, Uppsala University

17.15-18.45 two parallel sessions

1. room: U28

EMOTIONS AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

chair: Debra King, Flinders University

The emotional potentiality of indeterminacy in civic engagement

Aris Komporozos-Athanasidou, King's College London

Activism and emotion at the UNFCCC summits

Åsa Wettergren and Jochen Kleres, University of Gothenburg

Getting Underneath the Emotional Frame: Radical Feminist Emotion Culture and the Politics of Trust

Lisa Kalayji, University of Edinburgh

and

2. room: U26

EMOTIONS IN PROFESSIONAL LIFE

chair: Stina Bergman Blix, Stockholm University

Angry, tired and stressed, but managing (for now): Teachers' emotions and emotion work

Roger Patulny, University of Wollongong

Rebecca Olson, University of Queensland

Jordan Mckenzie, University of New England

Alberto Bellochui and Kathy Mills, Queensland University of Technology

Changing Feeling Rules in Corporate Management: How Female Leaders Make Sense of Contradictory Emotion Norms

Elgen Sauerborn, Freie Universität Berlin

Emotional Dynamics of Success and Failure

Henrik Fürst, Uppsala University

Friday 26 August

10.00-12.00 two parallel sessions

1. room: U36

EMOTIONS IN INTIMATE LIFE

chair: Mary Holmes, University of Edinburgh

Understanding the role of emotion through Durkheim: Contemporary Friendship as a functional alternative to religion

Dani Clark, Flinders University

Feelings set in motion. Researching emotions and family life in transnational migration

Tania González, Stockholm University

“Watch Me Feel” – Feeling Rules in Times of Intimacy

Natàlia Cantó-Milà, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya

Partnership and parent-child-relationships on Austrian farms - The Sociology of Emotions' Perspective

Sabine A. Haring, University of Graz

and

2. room: U37

LAW AND EMOTIONS

chair: Jonathan Heaney, Queen's University Belfast

Humour in the Swedish Court: Laughter, Status and Power

Stina Bergman Blix, Stockholm University

Åsa Wettergren, University of Gothenburg

Emotions in Judicial Decision Making: The Judicial Pressure Cooker

Joan Richardson, Manchester Metropolitan University

Just emotions? Emotives as a symbolic boundary to perform a professional respectability

Nina Törnqvist, Stockholm university

Subtle dramas: exploring defense lawyers' emotion management and impression management in the courtroom

Lisa Flower, Lund University

12.00-13.00 lunch break (self-catering, see conference folder for open restaurants/cafes)

13.00-15.00 two parallel sessions

1. room: U36

EMOTIONS IN ORGANIZATIONS

chair: Roger Patulny, University of Wollongong

Affective Capital in Public Services

Birgit Sauer, Otto Penz, Myriam Gaitsch, University of Vienna

Johanna Hofbauer, Barbara Glinsner, Vienna University of Economics and Business

Post-Bureaucratic Management Ideals and Affective Governance in a State Bureaucracy: The Emotional Regime of the Reformed Swedish Social Insurance Agency

Kerstin Jacobsson and Linda Helgstedt, University of Gothenburg

A heart felt decision? Exploring emotional intelligence in police officer decision-making at domestic violence incidents

Anne L Eason, University of Worcester

Emotional Labour, Identity and Governmentality: Productive Power in Childcare

Merete Monrad, Aalborg University

and

2. room: U37

EMOTIONS AND POLITICS

chair: Monika Verbalyte, Freie Universität Berlin

Theorizing the Emotional State

Jonathan G. Heaney, Queen's University Belfast

Emotions, state and nation-building

Nicolas Demertzis, University of Athens & National Center for Social Research

Is dutiful citizenship as unemotional as it sounds?

Nathan Manning, University of York

15.00-15.30 coffee break

15.30-17.00, room: Ahlmannsalen

KEYNOTE: Understanding Emotional Strategies and Counterstrategies

Monique Scheer, University of Tübingen

20.00, conference dinner, Tabbouli Söder, Tavastgatan 22

Saturday 27 August

10.00-12.00 two parallel sessions

1. room: U36

COLLECTIVE EMOTIONS AND IDENTITY

chair: Christian von Scheve, Freie Universität Berlin

What are collective moods?

Mikko Salmela, University of Helsinki

“Negative” moral emotions and social cohesion: social functions of shame, guilt, jealousy, envy and resentment.

Olga Simonova, Higher School of Economics Moscow

With cool head? Emotions in intercommunal conflicts – The Case of Cyprus

Carolina Rehrmann, Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena

and

2. room U37

EMOTIONS, GENDER AND SEXUALITY

chair: Natàlia Cantó Milà, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya

Emotions as Boundary Breaking: Considering the impact of the Therapeutic Discourse on Male Emotionality

Fiona McQueen, Edinburgh Napier University

“She just never talks about how she is feeling”: Emotional Capital in Lesbian Cross Class Relationships

Nell Beecham, London School of Economics

‘The Expressive Male’: Thinking Critically about Emotions in Critical Studies on Men and Masculinities

Sam de Boise, Örebro University

Jeff Hearn, Örebro University, Hanken School of Economics, University of Huddersfield

Is it work or my boss that makes me angry? A comparison of workplace harassment and anger amongst Australian men and women

Roger Patulny, University of Wollongong

12.00-13.00

We kindly ask fee paying members of the ESA and of RN 11 to budget in an additional hour for the network’s business meeting after the last session.